

YOGA

Take time ... Breathe ... Unwind ... Let go

Yoga is a 5000+ year old practice, originating in the Sarasvati valley of Northern India. Yoga means “to yoke”, “to unite”, “to draw together as one”. In our classical Hatha Yoga classes we unite Body, Mind and Soul by using breathe, physical movements and postures, and sound to draw our attention inwards and begin to quiet the active mind, create more flexibility in both our mind and our body, and strength on all levels of being.

The practice of Yoga brings the practitioner to a place of calm, of health, and of vitality. Our approach to yoga brings you back to yourself, to a quiet, stable centre from which you can lengthen, extend, blossom, and grow.

We have students of all ages and physical conditions. The benefits are as varied and wonderful as the people who practice.

MEDITATION

Meditation is the art of making friends with the restless mind and opening the door to consciousness. Meditation helps bring us peace of mind, clarity of thought, reduction of stress, and a more positive outlook on life. It can also help improve an individual general physical, mental, and spiritual well-being. When our minds are calm, our body relaxes. When our mind and body are relaxed, we move toward stillness. When we experience stillness, we are moving toward a harmony of well-being wholeness – health. Meditation is an act of self-love and love for life.

OUR TEACHERS

is a practitioner and teacher of Yoga for more than 30 years. Diane continues to study with many different Yoga masters, but her teaching practices are grounded in the teachings of Sandra Sammartino of ‘Kairos’, where “one’s spirit is healed, joy is felt, and empowerment gained amidst an environment filled with love, laughter and authenticity. In addition to co-owning and teaching regular yoga classes Diane is currently teaching a 200+ hours Yoga Teacher Training Program.

Tracy Candish

has been a student of Yoga for 20 years. It became clear that Yoga was a necessity, a wonderful way to balance out the everyday stresses in life and the pathway to reconnect to her true self. She completed the Teacher Training and Development course in 2006 with Diane Donovan and teaches Hatha based Yoga. She encourages individual, self-paced discovery through Yoga for her students.

Tina Nilsson

Ever since I was a young girl, I have carried with me a desire to help people feel good. I have been a student of Yoga since 2007, when I started to work at BodyWorks. I received my first yoga teacher diploma from Diane Donovan in 2012. Ever since then I have continued to study yoga both in India and Spain. I teach gentle Hatha Yoga, suitable for all ages and levels, from beginners to more advanced. . My vision is to assist people in their own transformation to be attuned and to lead a calm, peaceful life.

“Giving in to distraction, we give up caring about the activity we are doing. When we do that we also give up caring about our self, about the value of the effort we are making with our life.”Les Kaye, “The Time Is Now”
